This flowchart is intended to help you understand the progression of Chinese courses in the Upper School.

Depending on enrollment, we may separate regular and advanced sections (ie. Chinese 2 and Chinese 2A).

Course Placement is determined by instructor recommendation.

This chart describes pathways for the majority of students. Occasionally, there may be individual deviations based on a student’s outstanding performance in their current level.