This flowchart is intended to help you understand the progression of Spanish courses in the Upper School.

Course Placement is determined by instructor recommendation.

This chart describes pathways for the majority of students. Occasionally, there may be individual deviations based on a student’s outstanding performance in their current level.